Transit Development Plan

Your feedback on public transportation is needed!

The Licking County Board of Developmental Disabilities is participating in a steering committee to improve the public transportation system in Licking County.

LCBDD News & Updates!

Licking County is developing a Transit Development Plan to provide a path toward a transit system that is a better fit for our community.

The first step in this process is to get as much feedback as possible from people using the transit system. LCBDD is committed to making sure the people we support and their families have a voice in the conversation.

If you ride transit, please fill out this online survey by clicking on this link:

OADSP looking for input on possible DSP certification for 16 & 17 year-olds

Please help the Ohio Alliance of Direct Support Professionals gauge interest for a new entry level position for 16 and 17 year olds in the field of I/DD by completing a quick 5 question survey HERE. All responses are anonymous, and data will be shared with the DODD Provider Certification workgroup to help guide their recommendations. It is important that all questions and/or concerns you would like to have considered related to this concept be expressed in the survey, not in an email chain, as the survey results are what will be presented to the Provider Certification Rule group.

Dormant DODD account error messages

Cost-saving efforts to reclaim Microsoft Dynamics 365 (D365) licenses consumed by dormant user accounts are underway.

Dormant accounts will have the D365 license removed to reduce ongoing monthly expenses. The dormant account will remain in place and re-licensed, if needed. If you receive the following error, "You are not a member of this organization," please create a ticket through the DODD ITS Call Center. Email itscallcenter@dodd.ohio.gov and note the error message received.
