First Aid/CPR allowances extended

DODD recently released updates in a Monday Memo, which included the following extended allowances for CPR/First Aid:

<https://dodd.ohio.gov/wps/portal/gov/dodd/communication/memos/memo-provider-compliance-rules-resume>

- Starting September 1, 2021, all DSPs must have First Aid/CPR training prior to providing services except for those employed at Facilities subject to OAC 5123:2-3-01 (F) (1)(h-i).
- First Aid/CPR training that does not include an in-person skills assessment will continue to be accepted through December 31, 2021.
- Training that includes an in-person skills assessment will again be required effective January 1, 2022.
- For DSPs who obtain CPR/First Aid training that does not include an in-person skills demonstration prior to January 1, 2022, DODD will accept this as valid training through the certificate's expiration date. Upon renewal, the DSP will be expected to obtain training that includes the required in-person skills assessment.
